Welcoming Non-Traditional Students into CTE Pathways

Denise Ojeda

10:00 a.m.

Welcome your nontraditional students to CTE Career Pathways. Learn how Perkins ties in with funding for these students and what best practices can be used to support your students and community.

About Denise Ojeda

Denise Ojeda joined the College and Career Readiness Bureau at the Public Education Department in the fall of 2020. She works as the CTE Coach for the northeast corner of the state with a focus on SkillsUSA, non-traditional funding, non-traditional careers, and English learners. Before joining the Public Education Department, Denise worked as an electrician for nearly 25 years and spent time as a full-time instructor in the electrical trades program at Central New Mexico Community College.
