

Bringing Careers into Focus

José Villarreal

Tuesday, March 30, 2021

9:00-10:00 a.m. MST

José will present on the infrastructure of the WBL Program at Farmington Municipal School District. He will highlight the soft skills workshops we offer students during the first 2 weeks of the semester and other soft skills workshops throughout the remainder of the semester. He will also expand on student experience and the benefits they acquire during the WBL process and experience.

About José Villareal

José has been the Workforce Community Liaison for the Farmington Municipal School District for two years. He is the co-developer of the Work-Based Learning Program at FMS. His primary responsibility is oversight of the WBL program. Additionally, José has several years of small business ownership and small business consulting experience.

José earned his Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration and obtained his MBA in May 2020 from NM Highlands University. He volunteers as a graduation coach for Farmington High School. José also volunteers as a commissioner for the City of Farmington: Community Relations Commission (CRC). He is also the Lead on the Workforce Capacity Goal Team for Four Corners Economic Development.

Hailing from Farmington, José graduated from Farmington High School. He is a first generation (non-traditional) college graduate. His wife is from Spain, and they have 3 boys: ages 5, 3, 2; and 1 (boy) on the way. His family loves traveling to Spain every summer and he is teaching his sons to snowboard during the winter months.
