Counseling Best Practices: Career Development & Guidance in CTE

NM Association of Career Technical Education Pre-Conference
Wednesday, September 8, 2021 (8:00 a.m.—11:30 a.m.)

Description

In the world of school counseling we are expected to be experts on everything! It can be overwhelming and exhausting. Under the ASCA Model, school counselors serve students in the domains of academic achievement, career, and social/emotional learning. Career exploration and development is crucial to a student's academic achievement and their social/emotional learning, yet we tend to silo the domains. As school counselors, it is our duty to ensure our students have access to information and experiences to assist them in their postsecondary and career planning. Come learn why the relationship between school counselors and CTE is one that cannot be neglected at your schools. Leave with strategies to develop and/or strengthen your relationship with CTE to support your students and your school counseling program.

Cost: This pre-conference is offered at $20 and covers the half day training, presentation materials and break-service for in-person attendees!

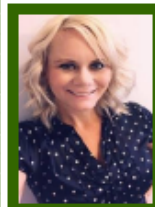

Registration: Registration can be accomplished by completing the on-line registration process at:
<http://www.thinkregistration.com/ACTE/NM/>

Delivery Method:

This Pre-Conference Training will be offered in hybrid capacities, via in-person at the CNM Workforce Training Center in Albuquerque and via ZOOM.

Information: Obtained by contacting Carol McAlister at carol.mcalister@carlsbadschools.net

About the Facilitator:

Amanda Nolasco has been in the education field for 22 years where she has served as an English teacher, School Counselor, Department Chair, Counselor Facilitator in CTE and is currently the School Counselor Specialist for the Arizona Department of Education. In 2012 she was selected as the Outstanding CTE Counselor of the Year for the ACTEAZ. She has served as the Assistant Chair and Chair for AzSCA and Vice President and Secretary for ACTEAZ.
